TRADE COUNCIL

UNCLE SAM paid Spain $20,000,000 yesterday—just one year after Dewey's great victory at Manila. It isn't often that a victor is so generous to the vanquished.

UNCLE JOHN SHERMAN, who was reported dead in many ways than one by the newspapers several months ago, is so very much alive just now that he is being mentioned as a prospective candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor.

COUNCILMAN SORRICK, Second ward, was the only Republican last night having the political independence to vote for the ordinance doing away with the superfluous office of Superintendent of Streets. According to the estimate of Mr. Paul, who prepared the ordinance, the taxpayers will be saved $2,000 a year by the abolition of the office, while the benefits they now derive from the street department will not be curtailed in the least. A worthy desire to help save the taxpayers money, was the sole consideration that prompted Mr. Sorrick to join with his Democratic colleagues in voting for the ordinance. The DEMOCRAT is glad to note that one Republican Councilman, at least, has the courage to vote against the politicians in control of his party's Machine when their selfish beliefs are counter to the best interests of the people.

THE unanimous vote of the seven Democratic Councilmen in support of the ordinance to do away with the needless office of Superintendent of Streets, was a token that those Councilmen cannot be bluffed by agents of the local Republican Machine into repudiating their pledges of economy. As the DEMOCRAT remarked several days ago, Akron's Democratic Councilmen are not taking their advice just now from the organ of the Dobson faction of the local Republican party, the same organ that slandered and abused them in the last campaign. The Democratic Councilmen are determined to do what is right in the interests of the citizens, and something more than the spiteful opposition of an organ that long since forfeited all of the scant respect and confidence of the people it ever had will be necessary to checkmate them in their laudable purpose.

It should not be forgotten that anyone troubled with rheumatism can get prompt relief from pain by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm. The quick relief it affords is alone worth many times its cost, 25 cents. Then if its use is continued for a short time it is almost certain to effect a cure. For sale by all druggists.

and foreign it all is. We had a delightful lunch and wandered among the bazaars and then came back with the usual attendants."

TUESDAY.

"DEAR ONE: The red sea has been most uneventful. It is just as blue as the ocean, but the Arab pilot explained to me in most remarkable English that near the shore the rocks make it look red. We are well down near the end and we hope to pass out and reach Aden tomorrow. The present plan is to stop at Aden only long enough to dismiss our pilot and sail for Colombo, Ceylon, where we are to go ashore.

"We have found genuine hot weather. Luckily we haven't much to do in hospital and we spend much of our time on deck where there is always a cool breeze.

"I will get this ready to send ashore with the pilot at Aden for it will probably be a week before there is another chance to send a letter."

March 18, 1899.

"DEAR PEOPLE: We spent St. Patrick's Day at the city of Suez, a very ancient town, the starting place for caravans from time immemorial. It was the first native town under native rule. We saw Arabs sleeping in the sun, donkeys, beggars, Egyptians, Turks following us everywhere.

"We enjoyed coming through the canal very much. It is about 86 miles long and our quarter-master paid the English about $12,500 for our passage through the canal. We saw much sand, some thousands of cranes standing on one foot, a caravan of camels with their masters resting in the sun. Very often we saw an Arab put off his shoes and make profound obeisance to the East. Five times a day the Moslem used this with an utter disregard of his surroundings.

"We have seen very little hot weather as yet. When we went into Suez yesterday morning, it was really hot. I wore a white waist and linen skirt. We saw roses in bloom and I was much amazed when in one of the cafes we were having a drink, I said to the American consul, 'Don't you have ice here?' He replied, 'Yes, but not in the winter.'

"We are in the Red sea today and this morning could see Mount Sinai on our left. It is cloudy and cool and although I have on a shirt waist, I find my golf cape thrown around my shoulders very comfortable.

"We have a queer Arab pilot on the bridge wearing a blue cambric night gown and a silk turban.

"We have a number of deserters from the English army on board. Our men are feeding them and have lent them clothes. The officers have found three and it is known that there are a number more.

"Last night at Malta, our soldiers were not allowed at shore, but the British red coats came aboard and exchanged clothes with them. As a consequence, some of our men are floating around in Malta and our officers are searching for English soldiers.

"We are told that it will take us four and a half or five days to reach Aden and it is not decided whether we'll stop there, but there will no doubt be an opportunity to send letters ashore and I mean to send this so that it will be ready.

"I shall soon have a trunkful of odds and ends from different places. Some of our party left us at Port Said, going to Cairo and the Pyramids, and coming by rail to join us at Suez. One of the officers brought me a piece of the Pyramid of Cheops, which I am just now carrying in my pocket.

"I picked up a few stamps at Port Said, probably of no value, but I will send them a few at a time.

"It is hard work to write letters. When we are not busy in the hospital we sit on deck in very lazy fashion.

"We were much amazed at Port Said. The beggars followed us in droves, and one of them in most insinuating fashion called after me, 'Mrs. Langtry, please give me a penny,' and, this failing, began to hail me as 'Mrs. Cornwallis West.'

"You can't know how nice it is to find the home letters. At Gibraltar the letters came on as soon as we anchored and at Port Said Janey's letter was dropped over my shoulder while I was at breakfast and before I realized that we had stopped.

"Just think, tomorrow it will be four weeks since we left New York and we are not yet quite half way."

A Happy Mother's Gratitude

[LETTER TO MRS. PINKHAM, NO. 2678]

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—I have many, many thanks to give you for what your Vegetable Compound has done for me. After first confinement I was sick for nine years with prolapsus of the womb, had pain in left side, in small of back, a great deal of headache, palpitation of heart and leucorrhoea. I felt so weak and tired that I could not do my work. I became pregnant again and took your Compound all through, and now have a sweet baby girl. I never before had such an easy time during labor, and I feel it was due to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I am now able to do my work and feel better than I have for years. I cannot thank you enough."—MRS. ED. E. LINSINGER, DEWINE, TEX.

Wonderfully Strengthened.

"I have been taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, Blood Purifier and Liver Pills and feel wonderfully strengthened. Before using your Compound I was in a terrible state, felt like fainting every little while. I thought I must surely die. But now, thanks to your remedies, those feelings are all gone."—MRS. EMILIE SCHNEIDER, 1244 HELENE AVE., DETROIT MICH.

Resolutions of Respect.

At a regular meeting of Division No. 98, A. of S. R. E. of A., the following resolutions of respect were adopted:

Whereas, Almighty God in His infinite wisdom, has seen fit to call from our midst our beloved brother and fellow worker, Emory Moore, and

Whereas, in view of the loss we have sustained in the decease of our late brother and the much greater loss sustained by those to whom he was nearest; therefore be it

Resolved, That in this sad bereavement we tender to the friends and relatives the sincere sympathy and friendship of our order, and will mourn a mutual loss; be it further

Resolved, That as a mark of respect our charter be draped in mourning for the period of 30 days, and the above resolutions be spread upon the minutes, a copy of the same be published in the local papers, and a copy be sent to the family of the deceased brother.

Hottest April Day.

Sunday was the warmest April day experienced in Akron since the establishment of a weather bureau in this city. The thermometer at 2 o'clock stood at 87 degrees. The average for the month was 50.3 degrees. This has been exceeded several times.

DO IT YOURSELF.

It is easy to tell whether your Kidneys are diseased. Take a bottle or glass tumbler and fill it with urine. If there is a sediment—a powdery substance—after standing a day and night, there is something wrong with the Kidneys. Other sure signs of disease are a desire to urinate often, pain in the back, or if your urine stains linen.

There is no question that Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy is the best and surest medicine in the world for diseases of the Kidneys, Liver, Bladder and Blood, Rheumatism, Dyspepsia and Chronic Constipation. It quickly relieves and cures inability to hold urine and the necessity of getting up a number of times during the night. It puts an end to that scalding pain when passing urine and corrects the bad effects of whiskey and beer. It is sold for one dollar a bottle at all drug stores.

Send your full postoffice address to DR. DAVID KENNEDY'S CORPORATION, Rondout, N. Y., and mention this paper. They will then mail you a trial bottle of Favorite Remedy and a valuable medical pamphlet free giving full directions for its use. Every reader of the AKRON DAILY DEMOCRAT can depend upon the genuineness of this special offer, and all sufferers from the diseases mentioned above should take advantage of it at once.

AGREED ON LEGISLATION.

Republican Monetary Committee Adjourned at Atlantic City.

ATLANTIC CITY, May 2.—The national house of representatives Republican caucus committee closed its sessions. To a reporter the chairman of the committee, Mr. Henderson of Iowa, said: "The committee appointed by the Republican caucus of the house to recommend financial legislation met at Had-don hall, Atlantic City, on April 17 and have worked steadily and earnestly for two weeks. Today (Monday) the committee reached unanimous agreement and is ready to meet the Republican members of the finance committee of the senate to submit their views to the consideration of the joint conferees. Until such meeting the work of the committee will be withheld from publication."

NEW YORK, May 2.—President McKinley spent a quiet evening at the Manhattan hotel and left this city about 10 o'clock last night for a special Pennsylvania railroad train in Jersey City, which left for Washington about midnight. The president retired as soon as he got aboard the special train. The party as it left for Washington consisted of the president and Mrs. McKinley, Assistant Secretary Cortelyou, Dr. Hays, stenographers, Foster and several servants. Mr. and Mrs. Abner McKim accompanied the party to the train.

What do the Children Drink?

Don't give them tea or coffee. Have you tried the new food drink called GRAIN-O? It is delicious and nourishing and takes the place of coffee.

The more Grain-O you give the children the more health you distribute along their systems.

Grain-O is made of pure grains, and when properly prepared tastes like the choice grades of coffee but costs about a fourth as much. All grocers sell it. 10c, 25c and 50c.

Try Grain-O!

Trust that your grocer gives you GRAIN-O. Accept no imitations.

Headache for Forty Years.

For forty years I suffered from sick headache. A year ago I began using Celeri-King. The result was gratifying and surprising, my headaches leaving at once. The headaches used to return every seventh day, but thanks to Celeri-King, I have had but one headache in the last eleven months. I know that what cured me is all help others. John L. Van Celeri-King for the Nervous, Stomach, Liver and Kidneys is sold in 50c and 25c packages by druggists and dealers.

THE VILLAGE WAS SACKED.

Carried Off Twenty Horses, a Large Quantity of Clothing and Groceries and About $1,200 in Money—Man and Wife Abducted at Times And.

HAVANA, May 2.—According to dispatches from Puerto Principe province the village of San Andres was recently raided by 40 outlaws led by Antonio Barredo, formerly a citizen of Holguin, Santiago province. The place was completely sacked, the bandits carrying off 20 horses, a large quantity of clothing and groceries and $1,200 in money. Five mounted armed men, the dispatches say, attacked a store in the village of Times And, abducted the proprietor and his wife and carried away $200 in money.

The people of the locality were frantically begging for protection, and a force of rural guards is greatly needed. The country folks were moving into the larger towns for safety, while the planters, many of whom have bought quantities of sugar cane in isolated localities, fear that the marauders will destroy it before it can be gathered.

WARNED BY LUDLOW.

Havana Editor Told He Must Quit Founding Republic.

HAVANA, May 2.—During the last few days some of the local papers that are printed in English published sensational stories regarding the disputes between the soldiers and the Cuban police, evidently with the intention of preventing an understanding between them and, if possible, stirring up more trouble.

Major General Ludlow, military governor of the Havana department, summoned an offending editor before him and warned him that he must desist from trying to excite the soldiers and the police.

Penal Effect on Cuban Marriages.

SANTIAGO DE CUBA, May 2.—It was pointed out that a curious result of Major General Wood's announcement that the marriage ceremonies of all religious sects are legal may be the temporary legalization of polygamy. In any event, there were some 3,000 "irregular" marriages in this province during the war, and, as there are no marriage laws except those of the Roman Catholic church, the new order insures the legitimation of the offspring of such unions.
